

SELF-CLOSING MECHANISM

The Eclisse self-closing mechanism is an ingenious system which is completely enclosed inside the frame and allows the door to close by itself, automatically with no input from you whatsoever. This system can even be installed retrospectively thanks to the Eclisse patented removable track system

- Suitable for single wooden doors only
- Adjustable closing speed
- Completely invisible from the outside
- Requires only 1 cm. width

